PERSONAL MENTION OF WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

HONOLULANS HERE AND ELSEWHERE

Major and Mrs. Helberg are so well known in Honolulu that the following clipping from the Washington Herald is sure to be of interest to their many friends: Major and Mrs. Elvin R. Helberg and children have arrived in this country from the Philippine Islands, and they, with their sister, Mrs. Butler, wife of Lieutenant Rodman Butler, and her children, have taken a cottage at "Number Four," in the Adirondacks, until the autumn. They will have with them for the greater part of the summer their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Howell Dodge, who will go there after the wedding next Wednesday of their youngest daughter, Molly, and Mr. William Strong Cushing. The ceremony will be performed in Pequos Chapel, New London, Conn. Mrs. Dodge and her daughter will leave this morning for New London, and will be joined there on Monday by Mr. Dodge, Mrs. Helberg and Mrs. Butler. Lieutenant and Mrs. Hugh McLean Walker, another brother-in-law and sister of the bride, now stationed in Boston, will also go there early in the week.

Those present were Mrs. R. Wilcox, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Mrs. Purvis, Miss Purvis, Mrs. Broadbent, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Sam Wilcox, Miss Wilcox, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Lydgate, Miss Faust, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., Mrs. A. Rice, Mrs. Rohrig, Miss Ruth Lindley, Miss Lulu Weber, Mrs. Weber.—Garden Island.

Mrs. Augustus Knudsen, who has been the guest of Judge and Mrs. Philip Frear at their country place on the other side of the island, departed last week for the mainland. Mrs. Knudsen has not been enjoying good health, and a cooler climate has been prescribed.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Damon are enjoying their outing on the other islands.

Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, Miss Ruth Anderson and Mr. Alexander Anderson return to their home Monday on the Mongolia, after an enjoyable and interesting outing on the mainland, and are being welcomed by their friends.

Captain Alden Trotter, U. S. A., of the Coast Artillery, who was stationed at Fort Hancock, has encountered a number of interesting experiences since he was ordered to the Mexican border. His wife has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Tracy Cummins of San Francisco. Mrs. Alden Trotter was May Switzer, formerly of Honolulu.

Mrs. Cunningham, wife of Lieutenant Cunningham of the Fifth Cavalry, has been visiting Captain and Mrs. Putnam during the past week.

Captain and Mrs. C. Sidney Haight of the Fifth Cavalry spent Sunday at Haleiwa, enjoying the golfing and swimming.

The numerous friends of the officers of the U. S. Thetis will be glad to learn that the rumor that the revenue cutter had been ordered to spend the winter in Alaska is an erroneous one. The trig little vessel arrived in Seattle the first of September, and is expected to reach Honolulu the first week in October.

Miss Agnes Alexander is enjoying her outing at the Augustus Knudsen's camp on Kauai.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey, who have been enjoying an extended trip on the European continent, will arrive in Honolulu last week in October. They have been traveling in the "Land of the Midnight Sun," from Norway to St. Petersburg, through Germany and France, and will sail from New York city September 23d. Their youngest son, Mr. Alan Lowrey, who has been traveling with them, will return to pursue his studies at Yale.

The Hon. and Mrs. William Richard Castle have received a cable stating that their daughter, Miss Beatrice Castle, has arrived safely at the home of the W. R. Castles Jr., at Marblehead, Mass., and that she had a pleasant overland journey.

Mrs. T. Rain Walker and Miss Beatrice Walker returned from Hawaii this morning and are sojourning at the T. Clive Davies' house at Waikiki, where they will remain until the last of October, when they will sail for their home in England.

Miss Ada Lyett, Miss May Weir and Miss Clara Gurney have been visiting on Maui, where they have spent a delightful vacation. They returned recently to Honolulu.

Miss Mary Phinney, who has been the guest of the Francis Gays, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elson and the Robert Bonds for the past three months, sailed on the Korea this morning for San Francisco. A few days will be spent in that city, and then Miss Phinney will go by rail to her home in Southern California.

Mrs. Beckley's Pol. Luncheon.

Madam Mary C. Beckley gave her son and daughter-in-law, a royal welcome Monday, when she entertained at a pol. luncheon in their honor. The guests of honor had returned from their wedding tour, on the Mongolia. Queen Lilikalanani who accepts very few invitations was present at this auspicious occasion, for she considers herself an old friend of the hostess, and young couple. This entertainment was by far the most elaborate of the week, and the decorations were beautiful. During the repast the health of the Queen was proposed and every one stood while drinking to the toast. Later the Hon. Allan Herbert proposed the toast that happiness and longevity would be the lot of the happy young married couple. A number of clever speeches were made and the entertainment was delightful in every way. About fifty friends were invited.

Charles Stevens' Entertainments.

Mr. Charles Stevens, the son of the famous Stevens, was host at an enjoyable party, that was given at his home at Waikiki, Friday evening. The affair was given in honor of Mr. William and Henley Chapman. During the evening games were played. Miss Ruth Anderson won the first prize, a handsome brass vase and the guests of honor were each presented with a guest prize. These pretty trophies were Hawaiian scenes framed in the natural island wood. At half after ten a delicious buffet supper was served, the house having been decorated with potted palms and asters. After supper the young people sat in the beach and played ukuleles and sang Hawaiian songs and a delightful evening was experienced. Among those present were the Misses Ruth Anderson, Helen Spalding, Thelma Murphy, Ruth Soper, Margaret Carter, Elizabeth Davis, Martha McChesney and Messrs. William and Henley Chapman, Francis Cooper, C. Stevens, Alan Renton, Wren Timberlake and Alexander Anderson.

Mrs. George Fairchild, wife of Senator Fairchild, arrived on the Mongolia Monday. This young society matron has been absent from the islands for nearly a twelve-month. Most of the time has been spent in Germany, where her youngest daughter has been under the care of a noted specialist. The many friends of Senator and Mrs. Fairchild will be glad to learn that the "little one" is enjoying excellent health. The Senator came from his home on Kauai, Sunday, to meet his family.

The George Beckleys at Home. A picture appears on the society page of Mrs. George Beckley, nee Campbell, whose marriage took place last month in San Francisco. Mrs. Beckley is a handsome girl. She and her husband have been given a royal welcome since their return on the Mongolia last Monday. Mrs. George Beckley purchased her trousseau during her recent European trip. Many of her gowns are Paquin models, and most of her trousseau was purchased in Paris. Mr. and Mrs. George Beckley are for the present residing at the peninsula.

The Messrs. Galt's Dancing Party. Mr. Jack Galt and Mr. Carter Galt have issued invitations for a dancing party that is to be given on the eleventh of September. The society event is to be given in honor of their cousin, Miss Elizabeth Carter who leaves on the 16th of September to resume her studies at a fashionable Eastern school.

Doctor and Mrs. Hobdy's Dinner. Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, Doctor and Mrs. McCormack, General and Mrs. Montgomery Macomb and Admiral and Mrs. Walter Cowles were entertained at dinner Tuesday evening by Doctor and Mrs. William Hobdy. The enjoyable function was given at the Hotel Colonial. The color scheme was green and gold, and the table presented a beautiful and artistic appearance.

Miss Elizabeth Davis' Luncheon. Miss Elizabeth Davis, the pretty and attractive young daughter of Major and Mrs. Alexander Davis, U. S. A., was a hostess this week at an impromptu swimming and luncheon party. The affair took place Thursday. The young people went swimming in the morning and returned to the hostess' home in time for tiffin. White and green was the color scheme for the pretty luncheon. Among those present were Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Maud Jones, Miss C. Low, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss S. Cochran and Miss Helen Jones.

Miss Johnson's Dinner. Tuesday evening, Miss Mary Johnson will entertain at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Beckley. Covers will be arranged for eight and the functions will be given at the Hotel Colonial.

Although the steamer left early this morning numerous friends of Mrs. John Strayer McGrew, and Mr. Tarn McGrew, were at the Korea to bid them bon voyage as they started at nine o'clock en route for their trip to Paris.

Mr. John Palmer, the owner and manager of the Hotel Courtland has been prevailed upon to accept the position as manager of the University Club. Mr. Palmer is an experienced caterer, and the board of directors are indeed fortunate in securing such a capable and competent man to take charge of the club.

SOCIABILITIES AROUND THE TEA-TABLES

Over the Teacups.

The general tendency of society for the last week has been toward informal gatherings, rather than amusements of a formal character. Nearly every entertainment on the social calendar has been planned on simple lines. Mrs. Gerrit Wilder entertained informally Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Rice of Kauai, at her home on Ulukoua street. Sprays of golden shower produced a pretty decoration for the drawing room. Mrs. Walter Francis Dillingham and Mrs. Richard Ivers poured coffee and tea in the diningroom at a circular table, handsomely decorated with pink roses. Mrs. Gardner Wilder served punch at a table situated in the southwest corner of this room. Among Mrs. Gerrit Wilder's guests were Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Arthur Marx, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Miss Gertrude Harding, Mrs. Harry Wilder, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. Francis Mills Swanzy, Mrs. Paul Isenberg, Mrs. McGauley, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. Charles M. V. Forster, Mrs. Thomas Victor King, Miss Helen Kimball, Mrs. Guyler, Miss Roberts, Mrs. Walter Francis Dillingham, Mrs. Edward J. Timberlake, Mrs. James Wilder, Mrs. Henry Dutton, Mrs. Worthington Ames, Mrs. Mary Widdfield, Mrs. Baird of Hilo, Mrs. Wilbur, Mrs. Gardner Wilder, Mrs. William Whitney and others.

Mrs. Augustus Murphy's Tea. Mrs. Augustus Murphy will entertain Thursday afternoon at an informal tea in honor of Mrs. Lindsay Rogers of Fresno, Cal. All of the invitations have not been issued. About twenty friends will be asked to meet the guest of honor.

Mrs. George Ewart's Tea. A number of society folk motored to Nuuanu Valley Thursday afternoon to attend a tea that was given by Mrs. George R. Ewart in honor of her sister and niece, Mrs. and Miss Cranke of England. The interior of the home was artistically decorated with American Beauty and La France roses. The hostess, her two guests of honor and Mrs. Emil Waterman received in the drawingroom between the hours of four and six. Dainty and delicious refreshments were served at small tables in the diningroom by a corps of Oriental servants. Miss Mary Catton, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Rennie Catton assisted in the entertainment of the guests. Among those who participated in this enjoyable affair were Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Mrs. Alan Bottomley, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. Lackland, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. John Angus, Mrs. Gulick, Mrs. Haneberg, Mrs. Philip Peck, Mrs. Henry Cooper, Mrs. Da Roi, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. Lees, Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse, Mrs. Pfern, Mrs. William Soper, Mrs. Catton, Miss Cordelia Walker, Miss Margaret McIntyre, Miss Jordan, Miss Mary Catton, Miss Aggie McIntyre, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Katherine McIntyre, the Misses Ward (two), Miss Stella Peck, Miss Agnes Walker, Miss Rennie Catton and others.

Mrs. John Waldron's Tea.

Mrs. Henry Bond Restarick, Mrs. Emil Waterman, Mrs. Charles Weight, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. Ross, Miss Cordelia Walker, Miss Robinson, Miss Dorothy Hartwell, Miss Ida Kopke, Miss Josephine Soper, Miss Geraldine Neumann, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Helen Achilles, Miss Bertha Kopke, Miss Agnes Walker and Miss Helen Alexander enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. John Waldron. The Waldrons' new home is considered one of the most artistic in Nuuanu Valley. The tea table, at which the hostess served tea, was placed on the large veranda. The lanai, filled with potted palms and hanging baskets of maidenhair fern, made an ideal environment for the informal gathering. Several of the guests who were industriously inclined brought their fancy work, and a pleasant afternoon was spent. Miss Cordelia Walker was the motif for the affair.

Miss Helen North's Tea.

Thursday afternoon Miss Helen North entertained at a fancy work party at her home on Green street. The keynote of the affair was informality, the young girls being invited to meet Mrs. Louis Gregg of New York, who is spending her honeymoon in Honolulu. Among those present were Miss Helen North, Mrs. Louis Gregg, Miss Alice Cooper, Miss Katherine Stephens, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Yael Cooper, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Irene Cooper and Miss Lydia McStocker.

Mrs. McStocker's Thimble Party.

Mrs. McStocker entertained informally at a thimble party and four o'clock tea, that was given in honor of Mrs. Elliott of the United States Navy, and Mrs. Rose Kingsbury of the U. S. Marine Corps. A dozen friends were bidden to the impromptu affair.

Mrs. E. B. Pardee's Tea.

Mrs. E. B. Pardee will entertain at her home at Fort Shafter Tuesday afternoon. The entertainment will be given in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Wilson of Portland, Ore., who has been visiting her brother, Lieutenant Pardee of the Twentieth Infantry, and her mother. Following is the form of invitation that has been received:

To meet Mrs. Wilson
Mrs. E. B. Pardee
Tuesday, September the fifth, at five o'clock.

A profusion of pale pink begonias ornamented the table when Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. V. Forster entertained at dinner, Sunday evening, in honor of the Hon. and Mrs. Charles Rice of Kauai.

Mrs. J. H. Soper and Miss Blanche Soper will not sail on the Kinau Tuesday for Kauai, as they had planned, owing to Mrs. Soper's illness, but they have postponed their trip until a week later.

Mrs. James Lyett, who has been spending the past eight weeks in California at Adam Springs, is greatly benefited in health. Mrs. Lyett arrived in Honolulu today on the Honolulu.

Mr. Frank Winter, who has been quite ill at the sanatorium on Kewalo, is now convalescing at his home on Lunalihi street.

Miss Margaret McIntyre and Miss Katherine McIntyre returned to their home in Nuuanu Valley, after an enjoyable week's sojourn at Haleiwa. Mrs. Alexander Campbell, the Frank Halstead, Madam Halstead and Mrs. Lackland were at "The House Beautiful," which helped to promote the pleasure of the Misses McIntyre's visit, and they are most enthusiastic over their outing, and declare Haleiwa an ideal spot for one to spend a summer vacation.

Mrs. Frank R. Day and Miss Marjorie Gliman left Friday on the Korea for San Francisco. They will go direct to New York, and from there sail for Europe, where they remain for six months or a year. Miss Marjorie Gliman is a member of the younger society set, and is a great favorite; her absence will be felt by her large circle of friends. Mrs. Frank Day is a kamaaina, having resided in Honolulu for many years, when her husband, the late Dr. F. R. Day, was one of the leading practitioners. Mrs. Day is endowed with literary ability; her legends of Hawaii are particularly interesting.

Senator Alfred Eric Knudsen of Kauai and Mr. Frederick Waterhouse are planning a trip to the Malay peninsula. They will leave in October, to be gone three months, and may return to Honolulu via Australia. Both men are interested in the growth of rubber and in the plantations situated on the peninsula. They will make their headquarters at Singapore. Mrs. Waterhouse and Mrs. Knudsen have decided not to take the long trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goetz, who returned on the last Sierra from an extended Eastern trip, and visiting relatives in Nevada, Dakota and Wyoming, have been occupying the von Damm residence, for their home in Manoa Valley had been leased by the Bert Patries until the first of September. They moved into their own home yesterday, which is situated on Manoa road.

Lieutenant Quinkney and Captain Forsythe spend Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis Jr. have been enjoying the bracing climate of Hawaii.

Mr. William Montrose Graham has been on a business trip to the other islands, and returned today by the Mauna Kea.

Miss Grace Robertson is visiting an old school friend of hers, a Miss Church of Berkeley, Cal. The two girls attended Mills College, where they formed a warm friendship. The Churches have recently built a beautiful new home, which is the center of much social activity. Miss Church is a gifted musician, and lately has devoted her time to composing. Mrs. George H. Robertson and youngest daughter, Miss Sibly, will leave on the steamer Wilhelmina in October for San Francisco, where Miss Grace will join them. They may decide to spend the holiday season in California.

Lieutenant Harold Parsons of the U. S. Marine Corps, who has been stationed at Camp Vero, Honolulu, was recently ordered to the mainland and sailed on the last transport. As yet Lieutenant Parsons has not been assigned to any station, and may be given sea duty.

Mrs. Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Pardee and a sister of Lieutenant Pardee of the Twentieth Infantry, is visiting her relatives at Fort Shafter and will remain in Honolulu until the first week of October. Mrs. Wilson is a prominent society woman of Portland, Ore., and is charmed with the beauties of the islands.

Mr. Harry Lucas, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas, has been spending the major portion of his summer vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Garman and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, relatives of his, who are prominent folk of Davenport, Iowa. On his return East, Mr. Lucas spent a week at the Belmont Hotel, in New York, as the guest of Mr. Lloyd Conkling. Shortly he will return to Cambridge, to enter into his sophomore year at Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Culman are building a beautiful new bungalow on the corner of Alexander and Bingham streets. They expect to occupy their new home before the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, after a delightful seven weeks' visit with relatives on Maui, returned to her home, 1822 Punahou street, on the Lurline Saturday. On Maui she visited her father and mother, the Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Murdoch, the William Baldwins at Haiku and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Murphy and Miss Thelma Murphy returned Thursday of this week to town, after an enjoyable month's sojourn at the W. W. Hall's place at the peninsula. During the month of August they entertained a number of friends in a delightful and informal manner. Their many friends are delighted over their return to town.

Miss Alice Cooper leaves today for Kaula, where she will spend a week as the guest of Miss Florence Hoffman.

Mrs. Spear of San Francisco is planning to visit her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, in January.
